REGISTRANT’S RESPONSE TO TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD ORDER

Registrant, in response to the TTAB’s Order of November 9, 2015, states the following:

1. In its order, the TTAB indicated that the amendment to International Class 28 would be accepted. However, the TTAB required submission of fees and a supporting declaration.
2. As there apparently is no PTO electronic form to submit payment to the TTAB directly, Registrant filed two Section 7 requests to amend the description of goods in each of its two registrations. These requested amendments are identical to the changed description of goods the TTAB already has accepted.

3. The Section 7 requests both contain a supporting declaration and payment of the required government fee for amending registrations. Therefore, Registrant now has complied with the requirements in the TTAB's November 9, 2015 Order.

WHEREFORE, Registrant respectfully requests that the TTAB now grant the parties' stipulated motion to amend registrations and withdraw the Petition for Cancellation.
